Forecast For East of England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Wednesday 29 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Fine tonight, but unsettled and windy to end the week.

This Evening and Tonight:
Skies clearing into the evening, with long clear spells developing, and turning chilly as winds ease. Increasing cloud and some outbreaks of rain will reach the west of the area around dawn. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Thursday:
Thickening cloud and strengthening winds will spread east during the morning, with outbreaks of rain gradually following through the afternoon and evening. The odd heavy burst of rain likely. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
A very unsettled spell with showers or longer spells of rain, these sometimes heavy or thundery. Occasionally windy, especially over the weekend, with risk of coastal gales, possibly severe.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.